5. The subscribers to the Constitution and other such persons as the Committee shall admit to membership in accordance with the provision hereinafter contained shall be members of the Trust.

6. The following persons and non-others shall be members of the Trust :-

(A) Such persons as subscribe to the Constitution

(B) Todmorden Town Council

(C) Such other persons or corporations as may be desired to be admitted to membership and who may be elected by the Committee to be members of the Trust.

In these presents the expression "Corporation" shall be deemed to include anybody corporate, any county, local or other public authority and any unincorporated association whom the Committee may elect to membership.

7. Any election of a person to be a member of the Trust under the Provisions of Article 6 Sub-Article (C) shall conform to the following regulations and conditions: ^

(1) Such persons must be proposed for election by a member of the Committee and fourteen days' notice shall be given to the members of the Committee of the meeting at which it is intended to propose such person for election, stating the object of the meeting, the name and address of the person to be proposed and the name of the member of the Committee proposing such person.

(2) Such person must sign and deliver to the Trust an application for admission to membership framed in such terms as the Committee shall require. In the event of such a person being elected in accordance with the above regulations he shall be entered as a member of the Trust on a Register that should be kept for such purpose.

8. Any member may, terminate his membership of the Trust by notice -in writing served on the Trust and thereupon he shall be deemed to have resigned and his name shall be removed from the Register of members,

9. If any member shall fail in the observance of these regulations or of any regulations of the Committee made under any powers vested in them or for other sufficient reason the Committee may convene an Extraordinary general meeting of the Trust for the purpose of considering an extraordinary resolution for the expulsion of such member and on such extraordinary resolution being passed the name of such member shall be removed from the Register of members, and he shall thereupon cease to be a member.

GENERAL MEETINGS

10. A general meeting of the Trust shall be held in every calendar year as its Annual General Meeting at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding General Meeting) and place as the Committee shall appoint provided that so long as the Trust shall hold its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation it need not hold it in the year of its inauguration or in the following year.

11. All General Meetings, other than Annual General Meetings, shall be called Extraordinary General meetings.

12. The Committee may, when they think fit, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, and Extraordinary General Meetings shall be convened on such requisition or, in default may be convened by such requisitionists.

13. Fourteen days' notice at least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which the notice is given) specifying the place, the day and hour of the meeting, and in case of special business the general nature of such business, shall be given to the members in the manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the Trust in General Meeting; but with the consent of all the members entitled to receive notices thereof in the case of meetings other than Annual General Meetings, a meeting may be convened by such notice as those members think fit. The accidental omission to give notice to any member, or the non-receipt by any member of such notice, shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting.

14. The business of an Annual General Meeting shall be to receive and consider the accounts and balance sheets and the reports of the Committee and Officers to elect members of the Committee in place of those retiring and also additional members of the Committee, and to elect Auditors and fix their remuneration. All other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall be deemed special.

15. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business, and such quorum shall consist of not less than four members or one tenth of the members entitled to attend and vote thereat (whichever shall be the greater number) personally present.

Website: www.visittodmorden.co.uk

16. If within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum be not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum be not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the member or members present shall be deemed to be a quorum and may do all the business which a full quorum might have done.

17. The Chairman (if any) of the Committee, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman (if any) shall preside as Chairman at every General meeting of the Trust. If there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he be not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, the members present shall choose one of the members of the Committee present to be Chairman, or if no member of the Committee be present and willing to take the chair, the members present shall choose one of their number to be the Chairman.

18. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for twenty-one days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give notice of an adjourned or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting.

19. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by the Chairman or by at least four members present in person or by proxy, or by a member or members present in person or by proxy and representing one fifth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting, and unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution 'has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect made in the minute book of the Trust, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

20. Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding paragraph, if a poll be demanded in manner aforesaid it shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the Chairman of the meeting shall direct, and the result shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

21. No poll shall be demanded at the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment.

22. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

23. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business in addition to the question on which a poll shall have been demanded.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

24. Every member shall have one vote.

(a) Save as herein expressly provided, no person other than a member duly registered shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question, either personally or by proxy or as proxy for another member at any General Meeting.

(b) Any Corporation which is a member of the Trust may by resolution of its governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Trust and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same voting powers on behalf of the corporation he represents as that corporation could have exercised if it were a personal member of the Trust. A corporation represented at a meeting by its authorised representative shall be deemed for all purposes to be present in person. A copy of the resolution appointing its representative which shall be certified as a correct copy by the Chairman or other recognised officer of the governing body of a corporation, shall be conclusive evidence of such appointment.

26. Votes may be given on a poll either personally or by proxy. On a show of hands, a member present only by proxy shall have no vote, but the representative of a corporation may vote on a show of hands. Except in the case of a corporation, no person shall act as a proxy who is not entitled to be present and vote in his own right.

27. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing.

28. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed or a notary certified copy thereof shall be deposited at the office or at such other place in the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote, otherwise the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twenty months from its execution.

29 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the principal or revocation of the proxy, provided that no intimation in writing of the death or revocation shall have been received at the office or other place as aforesaid one hour at least before the time fixed for holding the meeting.

30. Any instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit:

"I .....of.....a member of the Todmorden Information Centre Trust (hereinafter called the Trust) and entitled to one vote, hereby appoint
.....of .....another member of the Trust and failing him.....another member of the Trust to vote for me on my behalf at the (Annual or Extraordinary, as the case may be) General Meeting of the Trust to be held on the .....day of.....and at any adjournment thereof. As Witness my hand this .....day of..... 20...

COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

31. The affairs of the Trust shall be managed by the Committee of Management. The number of the members of the Committee shall not be less than three nor more than twelve.

32. The members of the Committee shall be:

(A) The Subscribers to the Constitution and

(B) Such persons as may be appointed by Todmorden Town Council being not more than 4 in number.

(C) Such other persons (being members of the Trust) as shall from time to time be elected thereto by the Committee or by the members of the Trust in General Meeting. Provided that no person who is employed by the Trust and receiving any salary, fees, remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Trust (save as permitted by article 3) shall be eligible for membership of the Committee.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

33. The Committee may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Unless otherwise determined three shall be a quorum. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

34. A member of the Committee may, and on the request of a member of the Committee the Secretary shall at any time, summon a meeting of the Committee by notice served upon the several members of the Committee. A member of the Committee who is absent from the United Kingdom and who has no registered address in the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to notice of meeting.

35. The Committee shall from time to time elect a Chairman who shall be entitled to preside at all the -meetings of the Committee at which he shall be present, and may determine for what period he is to hold office, but if no such Chairman be elected or if at any meeting the Chairman be not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting and willing to preside, the members of the Committee shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

36. A meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretions by or under the regulations of the Trust for the time being vested in the Committee generally.

37. The Committee may delegate any of their powers to subcommittees consisting of such members or members of the Committee as they think fit, and any sub-committees so framed shall in the execution of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations imposed on it by the Committee. The meetings and proceedings of any such Sub-Committee shall be governed by the provision of these presents for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Committee as far as applicable and so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the Committee aforesaid. All acts and proceedings of any such Sub-Committee or sub-committees shall be reported back as soon as possible to the Committee.

38. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Committee or any Sub-Committee of the Committee, or by any person acting as a member of the Committee shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such member or person acting as aforesaid or that they or any such member or person acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a member of the Committee.

39. The Committee shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments of officers made by the Committee and of the proceedings of all meetings of the Trust and of the Committee and of the sub-committee of the Committee, and all business transacted at such meetings, and any such minutes of any meeting, if purported to be signed by the Chairman of such meeting, or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

40. A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being of the Committee or of any Sub-Committee of the Committee who are duly entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Committee or of such Sub-Committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee or of such Sub-Committee duly convened and constituted.

POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE

(1) To pay costs, charges and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation and establishment of the Trust and matters incidental thereto.

(2) To purchase or otherwise acquire for the Trust any property, rights or privileges which the Trust is authorised to acquire at such a price and generally on such terms and conditions as they may think fit.

(3) To raise or borrow money for the purposes of the Trust from any person, corporation or other body and may secure the repayment of the same together with any interest and premium thereon, by Mortgage or charge upon the whole or part of the assets and property of the Trust, present or future.

(6) To appoint and at their discretion remove- or suspend such officers and other staff or permanent, temporary or special services as they from time to time think fit, and to invest them with such powers as they may think expedient, and to determine their duties and fix their salaries or emoluments, and to require security in such instances and to such an amount as they may think fit.

(7) To institute, conduct, defend, compound or abandon any legal proceedings by or against the Trust or its officers or otherwise concerning the affairs of the Trust and also to compound and allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debt due and of any claims or demands by or against the Trust.

(8) To refer any claims or demands by or against the Trust to arbitration and observe and perform the awards.

(9) To make and give receipts, releases and other discharges for money payable to the Trust and for the claims and demands of the Trust.

(10) To determine who shall be entitled to sign on the Trust's behalf, bills, notes, receipts, acceptances, endorsements, cheques, releases, contracts and documents.

(11) From time to time to make all such regulations and bye-laws as they think proper with regard to the affairs of the Trust, and from time to time repeal and alter the same or make others in lieu thereof as may seem expedient. Provided that the same do not contravene any of the provisions herein contained.

41. No person shall, unless recommended by the Committee, be eligible for election to membership of the Committee at any general meeting unless, not less than three nor more than thirty days before the date appointed for the meeting, there shall have been delivered to the Chairman notice in writing, signed by a member duly qualified- to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of his intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing signed by that person of his willingness to be elected.

42. The Trust may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase or reduce the number of members of the Committee.

43. The Trust may by ordinary resolution, of which special notice has been given, remove any member of the Committee before the expiration of his period of office notwithstanding any of these articles or in any agreement between the Trust and such member.

44. The Trust may by ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of a member of the Committee removed from office under the immediately preceding paragraph, without prejudice to the general powers of the Committee in General Meeting to appoint any person to be a member of the Committee either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional member.

DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE.

45. The office of a member of the Committee shall be vacated:

(A) If he becomes bankrupt or insolvent or compounds with his creditors.

(B) If he becomes of unsound mind.

(C) If he be convicted of an offence the commission of which by a member of the Committee could bring the Trust into disrepute.

(D) If requested in writing by a majority of his fellow members of the Committee to resign.

(E) If he gives the Committee one month's notice in writing to the effect that he resigns his office.

46. A member of the Committee who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract, arrangement or dealing with the Trust, shall declare the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Committee, and subject thereto and subject to the right of the remaining members of the Committee to resolve that he withdraw and not vote on the particular matter, he may be counted in the quorum present at any meeting of the Committee whereat such contract, arrangement or dealing with the Trust is considered or entered into and may vote in respect thereof.

SECRETARY

47. The Secretary shall be appointed by the Committee on such terms as to length of service, remuneration and generally as the Committee may think fit and the Committee may remove any Secretary so appointed. The Committee may from time to time appoint a deputy or assistant Secretary who may act in the place of the Secretary if there be no Secretary or no Secretary available to act or capable of acting.

48. The income of the Trust shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the object of the Trust as set forth in the Trust's Constitution as the Committee may from time to time think fit (and in particular the Committee shall have power to transfer all or any part of such income to trustees to be applied by them for the advancement of the object of the Trust in such manner as they shall think best) with power to the Committee to create a reserve fund or reserve funds to be applied for such purposes, and, if the Committee shall think fit, also to apply all or any part of the other one or more of such purposes, and, pending any such application, any reserve fund may at the discretion of the Committee either be employed in the business of the Trust or be invested from time to time in such investment as the Trust may think fit.

ACCOUNTS

49. The Committee shall cause accounting records to be kept and the books of account shall be kept at the office, at such other place or places as the Committee may determine and shall always be open to the inspection of the Committee. The Committee may from time to time by resolution determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and on what conditions the books and accounts of the Trust or any of them shall be open to the inspection of the members of the Committee, and the members shall only have such rights of inspection as are given to them by such resolution aforesaid.

50. At the Annual General meeting in every year the Committee shall lay before the Trust an income and expenditure account for the period since the preceding account, or in the case of the first account since the inauguration of the Trust, made up to date not more than six months before such meeting. A balance sheet as at the date to which the income and expenditure account is made up, shall be made out and laid before the Trust at the Annual General Meeting. Every such balance sheet shall be accompanied by proper reports of the Committee and Treasurer.

51. A notice may be served by the Trust upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post addressed to such member at his registered address.

52. No member shall be entitled to have a notice served on him at any address not within the United Kingdom, and any member whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom may by notice in writing require the Trust to register an address within the United Kingdom which, for the purpose of serving notices, shall be deemed to be his registered address. Any member not having a registered address within the United Kingdom, and not having given notice aforesaid, shall be deemed to have received in due course any such notice.
