Todmorden Information Centre is now the only visitor centre within Calderdale and the wider local area. As foreign holidays are looking increasingly less likely due to the continuing covid-19 restrictions we are anticipating an upsurge in day and overnight visitors to the area. Todmorden now has the unique advantage over other local towns by having a centre that is open for interactions with visitors and potential visitors. The Trust is actively exploring ways to exploit this advantage to the greatest benefit for all of Todmorden due to the extra footfall.

It is not just people outside of Todmorden that benefit from Todmorden Information Centre Trust. We are a partner and supporter of many other organisations in Todmorden, such as the Hippodrome Theatre, Todmorden Orchestra, Todmorden Choral Society, Lamplighter, the Country Fair, Incredible Edible Todmorden and Todmorden Agricultural Show. Without the central hub provided by the Centre many events would be unable to effectively promote themselves or engage with their audience.

All residents of Todmorden benefit from having an engaging, welcoming and open Information Centre.

For further details please see enclosed document.

Please include dates and venue of events if applicable – please include a draft programme if available.
