Criteria for inclusion

In order to provide a consistent approach towards identifying the properties to be included within this section, councillors considered each property under the following criteria:-

Characteristic	Definition
Age	The age of an asset may be an important criterion, and the age range can be adjusted to take into account distinctive local characteristics or building traditions
Rarity	Appropriate for all assets, as judged against local characteristics
Aesthetic interest	The intrinsic design value of an asset relating to local styles, materials or any other distinctive local characteristics.
Group Value	Groupings of assets with a clear visual design or historic relationship
Archaeological interest	The local heritage asset may provide evidence about past human activity in the locality, which may be archaeological- that is in the form of buried human remains - but may also be revealed in the structure of buildings or in a manmade landscape. Heritage assets with archaeological interest are the primary source of evidence about the substance and evolution of places, and of the people and cultures that made them.
Archival interest	The significance of a local heritage asset of any kind may be enhanced by a significant contemporary or historic written record
Historical Association	The significance of a local heritage asset of any kind may be enhanced by a significant historical association of local or national note, including links to important local figures. Blue Plaque and other similar schemes may be relevant.
Designed Landscape Interest	The interest attached to locally important historic designed landscapes, parks and gardens which may relate to their design or social history . This may complement a local green space designation, which provides special protection against development for green areas of particular importance to local communities for their current use
Landmark status	An asset with strong communal or historical association, or because it has especially striking aesthetic value, may be singled out as a landmark within the local scene
Social and Communal Value	Relating to places perceived as a source of local identity, distinctiveness, social interaction and coherence, sometimes residing in intangible aspects of heritage, contributing to the "collective memory of a place.
